

◆ WHAT IS HATSUNE MIKU?

- Hatsune Miku is a Vocaloid voice software character
- She was released in 2007 by Crypton Future Media
- Her voice is generated, not recorded by a human singer
- She exists as a digital persona with endless interpretations
- She is often called an “internet-created idol”

◆ FUN FACTS

- Miku’s name means “first sound of the future”
- She has no official single personality
- Her appearance is intentionally customizable by creators
- Thousands of songs are made using her voicebank
- She is one of the most used Vocaloid voices in history
- Concerts exist where she appears as a hologram-like projection

◆ INTERNET CULTURE IMPACT

- She became famous through YouTube + NicoNico Douga
- Fans built entire music genres around her voice
- She is part of early internet “collaborative creation culture”
- Artwork, songs, and remixes define her existence
- She is less a character and more a shared digital concept

